NEVER A HEARTLESS HOME

ABOUT THE TINMAN

The Tinman House is a boutique furniture retailer located in Dubai, UAE. The company was founded in 2018 with focus on unique and distinct furniture. The Tinman House tailors to homes with eccentric character and bold personalities.

Home Decor is not just about fitting a home with furniture. The Tinman House's objective is to transform every house into a home that is built on the narratives and characteristics of it's owner. Just like our clients, every item in our catalogue comes with a back story and a passion to stand out.

PLAYFUL - CURIOUS

CANAPÉ ALPHA

Mushrooms, oysters, tongues, and tulips are some of the iconic shapes French designer Pierre Paulin was best known for creating. Paulin's forward-looking, innovative design for the Canapé Alpha found in contemporary art and design collections around the world, from the Museum of Modern Art, New York to the Victoria and Albert Museum, London and the National Centre for Art and Culture Georges Pompidou in Paris.

STRIKING - VOLUPTUOUS

KELLY

The lux and bodacious Kelly sofa is the cool girl sipping Cosmos in the dark corner of a chic NYC lounge. Her fluid curves are harmoniously matched by sumptuous pleated waves of soft upholstery fabric. Her tell is a striking metal band hugging the base of her curvaceous body, leaving you constantly searching for a golden glimpse of her copious beauty.

MESSINA

Inspired by the sumptuous sculptural silhouettes of Art Deco armchairs, this Eichholtz velvet designer sofa features an indulgent exterior of deep colored velvet upholstery.

Exuding 1920s allure, Messina creates an instant focal point for lounge and lobby areas where its statement scalloped curves and sculptural back make for a seductive style statement to remember.

Brass legs add a touch of metallic allure as the hardwood internal frame features an ultra-padded foam fiber filling and suspension for a supreme sink in seating experience which maintains its immaculate proportions between uses.

THE PLATNER

In 1966, the Platner Collection captured the “decorative, gentle, graceful” shapes that were beginning to infiltrate the modern vocabulary. The iconic lounge chair and the dining set are created by welding curved steel rods to circular and semi-circular frames, simultaneously serving as structure and ornament.

CHESTERFIELD

The chesterfield sofa is not just a piece of furniture but a piece of history. Successfully exported through the colonies of the British Empire by the officials of the Royal Army (U.S.A, Canada, Australia...) it soon became a worldwide peerless emblem of British style.

The chesterfield sofa conjures images of formally attired gentlemen sequestered in a dark paneled study, sipping brandy and smoking cigars. The Victorian era saw the chesterfield as the key piece in living rooms, where gentlemen relaxed while their wives sat in chairs crafting needlepoint.

INDUSTRIAL - EFFICIENT

THE AVIATOR

Inspired by World War II fighter planes, The Aviator's aerodynamic curves are hugged in aluminum accented with exposed steel screws, the seat swathed in leather with the softness of a vintage bomber jacket. A low seat and raked back give it true flyboy swagger.
